

Full Day Tours (7 to 8 hours)

St Michaels Mount, Minack Theatre & St Ives

This is a hugely popular tour which takes in Cornwall's most unique landmarks. We stop in Marazion for you to see and photograph St Michaels Mount before moving on to the spectacular Minack Theatre: one of Cornwall's most breathtaking venues. You then have the chance to relax aboard our coach as we travel along spectacular coastal roads to St Ives; an artists paradise and quintessential Cornish fishing harbour filled with fascinating shops and galleries including the world renowned Tate Gallery. We can help you decide on the best place to lunch!

We then head back to Falmouth, ensuring you're back in time for your dinner or departure.

Porthleven, St Michaels Mount, Mousehole & Trengwainton Gardens

This tour takes in some of Cornwall's best bits you might otherwise miss but are just as beautiful. Our first stop is Porthleven: a beautiful harbour village with quirky shops and inns: ideal for a morning tea or coffee. We then continue to head west, stopping briefly in Marazion for views of the iconic St Michaels Mount before following the seafront road through Penzance and Newlyn to Mousehole: a true working Cornish fishing village famed for its Christmas lights, but equally charming all year round. Once you've had time to explore, we continue on to Trengwainton Gardens where you can explore the walled gardens and luscious grounds, as well as a superb lunch in the restaurant.

Eden Project

Dubbed the Eighth Wonder of the World by some, the Eden Project is a dramatic global garden housed in tropical biomes that nestle in a crater the size of 30 football pitches. Experience the sights, smells and scale of the rainforests in the Rainforest Biome - the world's largest greenhouse - and discover the tropical plants that are used to produce everyday products. You have all the facilities you will need to hand, with on-site eateries and shops, which is just as well because you'll easily spend all day here.

We then head back to Falmouth, ensuring you're back in time for your dinner or departure.

Padstow and Tintagel

This tour takes you to the dramatic coast of North Cornwall. Our first stop is Padstow: one of Cornwall's idyllic harbour towns. Fascinating shops surround the town centre harbour will excite the retail explorer in you – and why not try a proper Cornish Pasty on the harbourside? Or, if you'd rather eat inside, you're sure to find a restaurant or café which caters to your tastes. We then head for Tintagel – a town steeped in mystery and legend. Visit King Arthurs Castle and admire the dramatic cliffs around you and be sure to visit the old Post Office building – now preserved by the National Trust.

We then head back to Falmouth, ensuring you're back in time for your dinner or departure.

Half Day Tours (around 4 hours)

Trebah Gardens

This tour takes you to the stunning Trebah Gardens – a garden which stretches through the valley down to a private beach. There's lots of exploring to be done – paths wind through the luscious, well-stocked gardens with views across the valley and down to the beach. You'll easily spend a few hours here before we head back to Falmouth. Why not ask your driver to drop you in Falmouth town centre and explore the town as you wander back to the ship?

St Mawes & Truro

This tour takes you to the beautiful Roseland peninsula and the fishing village of St Mawes; home to St Mawes castle, sister to Falmouth's Pendennis Castle. From the castle there are views across to Falmouth. If you're a small group, our smaller vehicles can take you across the King Harry Ferry to Cornwall's Cathedral City of Truro. The King Harry Ferry is a chain ferry with deep, glazed sides affording you a view down the River Fal as you cross.

In Truro you may choose to indulge in a little retail therapy or alternatively explore the Cathedral and it's fascinating history.

We then travel back to Falmouth and if time allows we can take you along the scenic sea front before arriving at the docks to meet your ship.

So much to see... ...so little time?

Get in touch to let us make sure your group get the most out of your visit to Cornwall!

Call us

01326 378 100

Email us

office@otsfalmouth.co.uk